

8:00–8:30	Registration
8:30–8:40	Introduction, housekeeping, and the overall plan for the day Peter Murray and Ezra Meyer, WAL
8:40–9:30	Plenary session #1: We all live and work in a watershed – how land use and land management at various scales affect our lakes, and roles citizens like you can play at every scale Presenter: Ken Genskow, UW-Extension
9:30–10:20	Plenary session #2: What a lake/watershed group can do – Case study: Waterford Watershed Management District and CAUSE Presenters: Ted Derse, Norm Abplanalp, Bob Hardy, and Kelly Cornelius
10:20–10:50	Networking Break (w/ snacks, coffee/tea/juice)
10:50–11:40	Plenary session #3: The individual lake property: putting the ‘you’ in watershed Presenter: Audrey Greene, Walworth County Lakes Specialist
11:40–12:00	Panel discussion with the morning’s speakers all the morning’s speakers
12:00–12:50	Lunch
Afternoon breakout streams	Your lot means a lot: Managing your lakefront property in a lake-friendly way Moderator: Dan Wilson	A little organization goes a long way: Lake protection tools for local groups Moderator: Peter Murray	...of...,for...,by the people: Helping local government protect our lakes Moderator: Susan Tesarik	Water follies?: Groundwater Management in Southeastern Wisconsin Moderator: Heidi Bunk
12:50–1:50	Rain gardens: restore groundwater recharge and reduce runoff  Roger Bannerman	Shoreland restoration: education, demonstration projects, and incentives  Lisa Reas	County lake classification efforts: Jefferson and Washington, County case studies  Susan Tesarik, Patricia Cicero, and Herb Wolf	Groundwater 101: the hydrologic cycle  Doug Cherkauer
1:50–2:00	Break
2:00–3:00	How to do shoreland restoration  Audrey Greene	Working with landowners to control polluted runoff  Faye Amerson and Frank Fetter	Comprehensive “Smart Growth” planning  Kevin Struck and Kevin Pomeroy	Groundwater laws &amp; policy  Tim Asplund and Lynn Markham
3:00–3:10	Break
3:10–4:10	Controlling runoff and erosion  Lisa Reas and Paul Cunningham	Acquiring land or working with a land trust  Nancy Pierce and Neal O’Reilly	Conservation and low impact development  Jill Enz	Groundwater management tools  Chuck Dunning,, Daniel Feinstein, &amp; Ken Bradbury